

Ashley Flick is a Professional Liability Loss Prevention Counsel for the Louisiana State Bar Association and is employed by Gilsbar, LLC, in Covington, Louisiana. She received her Bachelor of Arts degree from Southeastern Louisiana University and earned her Juris Doctor degree from Loyola University College of Law. Prior to joining Gilsbar, Ms. Flick practiced law for an insurance defense law firm in Covington, Louisiana. She is a member of the Louisiana State Bar Association and is tasked with giving lectures on ethics as part of Mandatory Continuing Legal Education requirements for attorneys licensed to practice law in the state of Louisiana.