

Eric R. McClendon is a graduate of LSU Law Center in 1988 and was admitted to the Louisiana Bar that same year; Eric has been actively engaged in attorney ethics and professional responsibility since 2006. Eric entered this field as a Complaint Analyst and Investigator with the State Bar of California before taking a position with the Louisiana Office of Disciplinary Counsel (ODC) in 2007 as a Deputy Counsel in investigation and prosecution. In 2013, Eric became ODC's lone Screening Counsel.