JOIN TODAY

Minority Involvement Section of the Louisiana State Bar Association

The Section's purpose is to provide a forum for the study and discussion of the problems and concerns involved in the practice of law by minorities; to contribute to the continuing education of minority attorneys and of all attorneys on diversity issues; to disseminate information regarding potential litigation and/or litigation that might affect minority attorneys, to encourage study, publication of legal writings and make recommendations regarding areas of interest to minority attorneys and regarding issues concerning diversity; to establish liaison with the Louisiana State Bar Association, the American Bar Association, the legal academic community, and the general community in order to achieve these purposes; and to promote and encourage dialogue and meetings between members of the Minority Involvement Section and other members of the Bar.

The Section hosts an annual Minority Job Fair in the fall, a Legal Internship Fair in the spring, a mentoring program for law school students, and many other activities in furtherance of its goals.

A membership application is on the reverse side of this flyer.
