

Luis A. Leitzelar is a partner at Jones Walker LLP, resident in the Baton Rouge office, where he practices in the Business & Commercial Litigation, Environmental and Energy Practice Groups and serves on the Firm's Diversity Committee. For the past several years, Mr. Leitzelar has been appointed by the Louisiana State Bar Association (LSBA) President to the Committee on Diversity, where he has served as Co-Chair of the Committee as well as the Conclave on Diversity in the Legal Profession Subcommittee. In 2015, Mr. Leitzelar was presented with the LSBA President's Award, recognizing his exemplary assistance to the Committee on Diversity in the Legal Profession. In 2013, he was recognized by the Defense Research Institute for his role as contributing author/editor of the DRI Diversity and Inclusion Manual and, in 2012, Mr. Leitzelar was presented with the Multicultural Leadership Award by the National Diversity Council. Mr. Leitzelar is a Fellow of the Louisiana Bar Foundation and of the Litigation Counsel of America. He received his bachelor's degree in 1987 from Louisiana State University and his Juris Doctor degree in 1991 from Tulane University Law School. He counsels clients in their day-to-day business operations and transactions and has tackled all phases of complex commercial litigation, including class actions, product liability claims and mass torts. He advises clients on the effects of federal and state regulations, and assists them in permitting, compliance, and defense of enforcement matters.
