

Eileen M. Letts graduated from IIT Chicago-Kent College of Law. In January of 1990, Ms. Letts and Martin P. Greene left another Chicago law firm to form Greene and Letts. After over 26 years, they have now combined with the Los Angeles-based firm of Zuber Lawler & Del Duca, thereby expanding that firm's reach to Chicago in addition to LA, New York City and Silicon Valley. It was important to Ms. Letts that she maintains an equity position in a minority owned firm, and that goal has been achieved.

Ms. Letts has practiced law since 1979 and has extensive experience in litigation. Ms. Letts' litigation experience includes dozens of jury trials and over 100 bench trials. She has successfully defended scores of complex tort litigation matters and handled medical malpractice cases. She has also tried contract disputes and Section 1983 claims. She is a frequent presenter at continuing legal education seminars and panel discussions of the American Bar Association, the Chicago Bar Association, and the Illinois Institute of Continuing Legal Education. She recently served as co-Chair, ABA Commission on Diversity and Inclusion 360. Ms. Letts is the recipient of numerous awards. She is listed as a Super Lawyer and has an AV rating with Martindale-Hubbell. She is a member of the American Bar Association, National Bar Association, Chicago Bar Association, Cook County Bar Association and the Black Women Lawyers Association.
