

Deidre Deculus Robert is a native of Mamou, Louisiana. She is a graduate of Louisiana State University and Southern University Law Center, both located in Baton Rouge, Louisiana. Deidre began her career as an Assistant City Prosecutor in Baton Rouge, Louisiana. After several years prosecuting, she was appointed as Special Assistant Parish Attorney in the Personnel Section of the Parish Attorney's Office in Baton Rouge. Deidre worked in the area of Labor and Employment law for approximately eight years and held the position of Personnel Section Chief for two years prior to accepting an appointment with the Louisiana Attorney General's Office in 2011. At the Attorney General's Office she served as the Deputy Director of the Public Protection Division for four years supervising the consumer protection, anti-trust, insurance, tobacco and fair housing sections of the office. She is currently serving as the Deputy Director of the Litigation Division of the Louisiana Attorney General's Office wherein she supervises the case administration, general liability and medical malpractice sections of the division as well as regional offices in Lafayette, Alexandria and Shreveport, Louisiana. A servant-leader at heart, Deidre is active in her local and legal community serving in the following capacities with the LSBA – Diversity Committee Co-Chair and Access to Justice Board Member, Baton Rouge Bar Association – Membership Committee Member, Louisiana Bar Foundation - Board Member, Junior League of Baton Rouge, Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc., Catholic Schools Office of the Baton Rouge Diocese - School Board Member, Louis A. Martinet Legal Society and National Bar Association.