

Dominique Bright-Wheeler currently serves as Managing Counsel for Toyota Financial Services in Plano, TX. She concentrates her practice in the area of consumer protection, including but not limited to privacy, cybersecurity data security and protection, and information security, among other consumer protection regulations.

Ms. Bright-Wheeler is a proud native of New Orleans, LA. Prior to joining Toyota she served as Director, Assistant General Counsel of Capital One Bank where she practiced in the areas of commercial banking, risk management and litigation in New Orleans, LA and mortgage origination and auto finance in Plano, TX.

Ms. Bright-Wheeler has also served as Senior Attorney Advisor for the U.S. Small Business Administration in Fort Worth, TX. Prior to that, she was an Associate with the law firm of Galloway, Johnson, Tompkins, Burr and Smith in New Orleans. She began her legal career as a Judicial Clerk to the Honorable Nadine M. Ramsey, Civil District Court for the Parish of Orleans.

She received her Bachelor of Arts degree in Political Science from the University of New Orleans and her Juris Doctorate from Loyola University School of Law in New Orleans.