

Jonathan Grode directs the Immigration Law practice at the United States offices (Philadelphia, Pennsylvania and Providence, Rhode Island) of Green and Spiegel LLC. Mr. Grode completed his undergraduate studies at Case Western Reserve University in Cleveland, Ohio where he graduated magna cum laude (1999). In 2008, he graduated first in his class from the Temple University Beasley School of Law. He was admitted to the Pennsylvania Bar in 2009 and is a member in good standing. Jonathan has worked continuously in the U.S. business immigration law field since completing his undergraduate studies and has amassed considerable experience obtaining nonimmigrant and immigrant visas for new company start-ups, professional workers and researchers. In addition, Mr. Grode has significant experience dealing with DOL and DHS enforcement actions as well as with EB-5 regional centers.

Mr. Grode teaches both Business Immigration Law and Advising Global Corporations as an Adjunct Professor at Temple University's Beasley School of Law. In addition, Mr. Grode is Co-Chair of ABA's Labor and Employment Law Section's Immigration Committee, a member of the ABA Labor and Employment Law Section's Human Trafficking Task Force and Chair Emeritus of the New Members Division of AILA's Philadelphia Chapter. He has published extensively and is a regular presenter at national and international ABA conferences as well as at local AILA seminars and meetings. Jonathan has also been named as a "Super Lawyers Rising Stars" (2012 through present) and in 2014 was given a Special Achievement Award from the Pennsylvania Bar Association.
