

Linda Perez Clark is a partner in the Baton Rouge office of Kean Miller. She has more than 20 years of experience in representing clients in a wide variety of transactional matters, including large scale engineering, procurement, construction and construction-related contracts (for both onshore and offshore energy projects), asset and stock acquisitions and sales, commercial leases and various product supply agreements. She has worked on transactions, construction contracts, and interconnection agreements for industrial mega-projects in Louisiana and in the Gulf of Mexico. Ms. Clark's practice includes general business advice to large and small businesses, as well as assisting clients with entity structure and governance, including entity formation and buy-sell agreements among owners, and in the development and negotiation of indemnity agreements.
