

Melanie C. Lockett is a Partner at Lowe, Stein, Hoffman, Allweiss & Hauver, LLP, in New Orleans, Louisiana. She enjoys a diverse litigation practice which includes insurance coverage and defense, commercial litigation, employment law, professional liability, and family law.

Ms. Lockett has litigated cases in Louisiana state and federal courts. She has also argued and appealed cases to Louisiana Courts of Appeal. Ms. Lockett's innovative and diligent approach in representing clients has led to notable successes including thwarting efforts to expand an insurance agent's duty in the aftermath of Hurricane Katrina. City Blueprint & Supply Co. v. Boggio, 3 So.3d 62 (La. App. 4 Cir. 12/17/08), relied upon in Isidore Newman School v.

Eaves, Inc., 42 So.3d 352 (La. 7/13/10).

In 2013, Ms. Lockett was appointed by the Louisiana Supreme Court to the Louisiana Board of Legal Specialization. She is actively involved in the Diversity and Insurance Law Committees of the Defense Research Institute ("DRI"). She served as Co-Chair of the 2013 DRI Diversity Corporate Expo and currently serves as the Insurance Law Committee's Membership Co-Vice Chair of Recruitment and Diversity Liaison. Ms. Lockett is a member of the Claims & Litigation Management Alliance, Media Law Resource Center, American Bar Association, Louisiana Association of Defense Counsel, and the Louisiana Bar Association.

.