

Commissioner Quintillis K. Lawrence was born on August 30, 1973, in Saginaw, Michigan. He graduated from Ruben Daniels High School in 1992 and graduated with a Political Science degree from Southern University at New Orleans in 1998. Commissioner Lawrence obtained his Juris Doctor degree from the Southern University Law Center in 2001.

Commissioner Lawrence is a member of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc, A life member of both The Reserve Officers Association, and the Military Officer's Association of America, and a former Executive Board Member of the Louisiana Association of Criminal Defense Lawyers. He practiced criminal law both as an Assistant District Attorney, and Assistant Public Defender, as well as having run a private practice for 10 plus years before being appointed Commissioner of the 19th Judicial District Court in July 2012.

Commissioner Lawrence is also a member of the Judge Advocate General's Corps in the United States Army Reserve, where he is a Major, and serves as the Chief of Operational and International Law in the 377th Theater Sustainment Command, the Army's largest two star command. He has been a member of the Army Reserve for over 24 years, enlisting in 1991 while still in High School.