

Royce Duplessis is the owner of Duplessis Law Firm, where he focuses on personal injury litigation. Mr. Duplessis also proudly serves as a Louisiana State Representative for District 93 (which includes the neighborhoods of Treme, 7th Ward, French Quarter, Tulane/ Gravier, CBD, Warehouse District, Central City, and Garden District). Prior to starting his own practice and being elected to the state legislature, Mr. Duplessis served as Special Counsel for the Louisiana Supreme Court, focusing on state and local criminal justice reform policy for Chief Justice Bernette Johnson. Mr. Duplessis is a graduate of Xavier University of Louisiana and Howard University School of Law. After serving as a law clerk for Judge Thomas J. Motley on the Superior Court of the District of Columbia, Mr. Duplessis returned home to New Orleans to practice energy regulatory law with an international law firm. Mr. Duplessis is the former Chairman of the New Orleans City Planning Commission and the Immediate Past President of the Greater New Orleans Louis A. Martinet Legal Society, an NBA affiliate.