

Sandra Diggs-Miller holds the position of Assistant General Counsel with the Entergy Services, LLC Legal Department. She earned her Juris Doctorate degree in 1998 from Loyola University School of Law. She served as the case note editor of the Loyola Law Review and was a member of the Loyola Moot Court.

Ms. Miller began her practice with the law firm of Stone, Pigman, Walther, Wittmann, L.L.C. where she focused primarily on complex commercial litigation, class action defense, and insurance defense. In 2000, she joined the litigation section of the Legal Department at Entergy Services, Inc., where she handles primarily property, casualty, and commercial litigation matters across the State of Louisiana.

From 2010 to March 2015, Ms. Miller served as the Diversity and Inclusion Chairperson for the Entergy Legal Department. In her role as Diversity and Inclusion Chairperson, she worked closely with the General Counsel to create policies that mandate an inclusive environment which in turn create opportunities for employees to contribute and achieve their full potential in the workplace. In November 2015, Ms. Miller graduated from the Executive Leadership Institute for Women. She has received several distinguished awards including, the 2018 National Bar Association Women's Law Division Outstanding Corporate Counsel Award, the 2017 Karl J. Conner Alumni Award from the Loyola A.P. Tureaud Chapter of the Black Law Student Association, and the 2016 Loyola Moot Court Distinguished Alumni Award.

She is admitted to practice law before the state and federal courts in Louisiana, and is a member of the American Bar Association, Louisiana Bar Association, National Bar Association, New Orleans Bar Association, Minority Corporate Counsel Association, Corporate Counsel Women of Color, Louis A. Martinet Society, and Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority. She previously served as a Mayoral appointee to the Regional Planning Commission, which serves Jefferson, Orleans, Plaquemines, St. Bernard, and St. Tammany Parishes. She currently serves on the boards of the Pro Bono Project, The First Tee of Greater New Orleans, KID SmART, and the R.C. Blakes Sr. Scholarship Foundation.
