Award Description

The Catherine D. Kimball Award for Advancement of the Administration of Justice was established to honor Catherine D. Kimball, the first woman to serve as chief justice of the Louisiana Supreme Court. The award is open to both attorneys and judges who have conducted exceptional outreach activities that support the goals and purposes of the judicial branch. These activities may include (but are not limited to):

- Improving services to those who use the Louisiana court system including jurors, witnesses, litigants, attorneys, and defendants.
- Improving court facilities.
- Enhancing services to pro-se litigants.
- Producing materials for public education.
- Facilitating access to the courts.
- Improving accountability.
- Hosting conferences, meetings, or other outreach efforts that facilitate the exchange of ideas and encourage collegiality within the judicial branch.

Please attach a written statement describing the nominee's outreach activities, along with a detailed description of why the nominee should be considered.
