

MINUTES OF THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES
OF THE LOUISIANA STATE BAR ASSOCIATION
JANUARY 24, 2004

The House of Delegates was convened at 9:07 a.m. on Saturday, January 24, 2004, in the Ballroom of the Hotel Monteleone in New Orleans, Louisiana.

I. Certification of Quorum by the Secretary.

After reviewing the delegate check-in roster, Secretary James R. McClelland determined that a quorum was present. A copy of the attendance roster is attached as an addendum to these Minutes. President Wayne J. Lee declared the meeting to be in session.

II. Reports of Standing Committees of the House.

No oral reports were given; all reports that were in writing were submitted.

III. Reports of Officers, Board of Governors, Standing Committees and Sections of the Louisiana State Bar Association.

1. President

a. Committee Appointments.

President Lee reported that all standing committee appointments were completed in July and committee work was ongoing.

b. Committee on Judicial Independence.

President Lee informed the House that a special Committee on Judicial Independence has been established to work with the Supreme Court to ensure the independence of the judiciary.

c. Brown vs. Board of Education.

President Lee reviewed plans for the April 23, 2004 event commemorating the 50th anniversary of Brown v. Board of Education of Topeka, Kansas. The event will be held at the Lindy C. Boggs International Conference Center at UNO in New Orleans and will feature a plenary session and several interactive breakouts.

d. Task Force on Diversity in the Profession.

President Lee noted the establishment of a Task Force on Diversity in the Profession. The task force has been charged with performing a study on where Louisiana stands regarding diversity in the legal profession, evaluate what can be done to improve minority involvement in the profession and to develop plans to bring about greater diversity in the profession and the courts. Justice Bernette Joshua Johnson and Past President E. Phelps Gay have agreed to serve as co-chairs of the task force. President Lee asked anyone interested in serving on the task force to contact him.

- e. Ethics 2000 Recommendations.
President Lee referred the delegates to a copy of the Supreme Court Order amending the Rules of Professional Conduct as developed by the LSBA Ethics 2000 Committee and approved by the House of Delegates. President Lee commended Harry S. Hardin III as chair of the committee, the members of the Ethics 2000 Committee, the House of Delegates and the Supreme Court for development and adoption of the new rules.
- f. Multijurisdictional Practice.
President Lee reported that the recommendations approved by the House of Delegates in June on the multijurisdictional rules are still under consideration by the Supreme Court.
- g. Annual Meeting.
President Lee reminded the House that the 2004 Annual Meeting would be held on June 9-11 at the Sandestin Golf and Beach Resort in Sandestin, Florida.

2. President-Elect

Mr. McKay informed the House that the 2005 Annual Meeting will be held in Las Vegas, Nevada, June 26-29. He noted that the change in venue is due in part to the steady decline in annual meeting attendance. The LSBA conducted a survey on its web site and the majority of participants chose Las Vegas as a meeting destination. The 2005 Summer School will still be held in Sandestin.

3. Secretary

Mr. McClelland reported that the proposed amendments to the LSBA Articles of Incorporation regarding online voting and moving the dues language from the Articles of Incorporation to the Bylaws, approved by the House in June and submitted to the entire membership for adoption, were approved.

4. Treasurer

Mr. Neuner referred the delegates to a written report distributed at the beginning of the meeting. He then made brief remarks expanding on certain sections of the written report.

IV. Reports of Special Committees of the Louisiana State Bar Association.

1. Community Action Committee - SOLACE, Inc.

Judge Jay C. Zainey and Mark C. Surprenant reported on SOLACE, Inc. and asked for volunteers.
